Convoy Protest CCG Meeting Minutes

Attendees: Jason Reynar, Shelby Askin Hager, James Chacko, Joe Mancina, Vincenza Mihalo, Jason Moore, Chief Mizuno, Dave Melnyk, Mel Douglas, Ray Mensour, Andrew Teliszewsky, Leslie Reeves, Alena Sleziak, Norm Synnott, Mary Rodgers, Jill Braid, Emily Bertram, Susanne Hutnik

Chief Mizuno: We opened Huron Church at Tecumseh Rd W. and Northwood and Industrial in all directions and some of the businesses are open. We are making progress and our demobilization plan is in place. We have the plan on how to open Huron Church. We are basing that plan on intelligence and activity that we are seeing. In Ottawa, things are looking good. A resurgence is some concern. Pleased with the progress we have made. No exact date for the whole area to be open but we have accelerated it a bit. Thank you to everyone.

Andrew: We have been notified that the Federal Minister of Transportation is on route and planning on meeting with impacted businesses. Then meeting with the mayor this evening at 6pm at city hall. Have asked them what their plan is.

Chief Mizuno: We are aware. We do receive notification in advance usually a day before. They sent out a little bit of his itinerary that he is planning on visiting.

CAO: WRT the demobilization plan, does it make sense for Phong to have a discussion on that?

Chief Mizuno: Not sure. My understanding was when opening intersections we are having that conversation with the city. We discuss things with the city and that is still happening. Are you asking for more consultation?

CAO: Will confirm who is talking with whom. Chris is not here today nor Phong. We will circle back on our side for mobilizing.

ROUND TABLE:

Milan and Councillor Morrison are in contact with Rakesh Naidu at the chamber to pull together impacts on the businesses, if the levels of government are interested. Info on impacts and data collection is underway now.

Shelby adjourned the meeting at 0949 hours.
